

PROGRAMME

Climate Smart Food

23–24 November 2009

at Scandic Star Hotel, Glimmervägen 5, Lund, Sweden

Monday 23 November 2009

Host: Anders Lönnblad, Deputy Director-General, Ministry of Agriculture

Moderator: Claes Sjöberg

Time	Activity
12.00–14.00	Registration (open from 10.00) Lunch hosted by European Commission
14.00	Venue: Uarda Anders Lönnblad, Deputy Director-General, Ministry of Agriculture Welcome speech Mats Helmfrid, Mayor and Chairman of the City Executive Board of Lund Welcome to Lund
	Minister for Agriculture, Eskil Erlandsson Introduction
	Johan Rockström, Professor in Natural Resource Management at Stockholm University and Director of the Stockholm Environment Institute and the Stockholm Resilience Centre (SEI) Abrupt global environmental change – what’s on the menu to solve the challenges?
	Johan Kuylenstierna, Chief Technical Advisor to the Chair, UN Water, FAO Global trends, challenges and food security – an FAO perspective
	Finn Rausing, Member of the Tetra Laval Group Board Climate Smart Food – a business chain perspective from Tetra Laval
	Mikael Karlsson, Ph.D. Environmental and Energy Systems, President European Environmental Bureau (EEB) Food and sustainable development
15.50–16.30	Coffee hosted by European Commission
16.30	Mads Greaker, Head of research, Section for Economic Growth and the Environment, Research Department, Statistics Norway/University of Gothenburg Climate policies with imperfect climate treaties

Time	Activity
	Ulf Sonesson, Ph.D. Department of Sustainable Food Production, The Swedish Institute for Food and Biotechnology (SIK) Food production and emissions of greenhouse gases
	Simon Bolwig, Senior Researcher, Technical University of Denmark An overview of product carbon footprinting schemes and standards
	Ebba Barany, Scientific Officer, European Commission, DG Research Knowledge based foods
	Pascal Greverath, Nestlé Director for Environmental Sustainability, Chairman of Confederation of the Food and Drink Industries of the EU (CIAA) Environment Committee The European Food SCP Round Table: fostering food chain sustainability and helping consumers to make informed choices
	Willemien Bax, Deputy Director General, The European Consumers' Organisation / Bureau Européen des Unions Consommateurs (BEUC) The consumer perspective
19.30	Reception and dinner at Scandic Star Hotel, hosted by City of Lund

Tuesday 24 November

Host: Anders Lönnblad, Ministry of Agriculture

Moderator: Claes Sjöberg

Time	Activity
09.00	Venue: Uarda Production of food
	Anita Wreford, Dr, Scottish Agriculture College Climate change and agriculture: impacts, adaptation and mitigation
	Joao Silva, Policy officer, European Commission, DG AGRI The role of EU agriculture in climate change mitigation
	Paulo Gouveia, Director General Affairs, European Farmer and European Agri-Cooperatives (Copa-Cogeca) Copa – Cogeca's view on climate smart food
	Richard Lowe, European Livestock and Meat Trading Union (UECBV) / British Meat Processors Association (BMPA) The European meat chain and the need for environmental leadership

Time	Activity
	Joop Kleibeuker, Dr, Secretary General, European Dairy Association EDA Dairy and climate change: from facts and figures to action plan
10.40-11.10	Coffee hosted by European Commission
11.10-13.10	Parallell sessions: A. Consumers' perspectives on choosing climate friendly food B. Waste of food C. International trade – public and private perspectives
	A. Consumers' perspectives on choosing climate friendly food Juha-Matti Katajajuuri, Senior Research Scientist, Agrifood Research Finland (MTT), Finland Climate impact of meals and food products Onno Franse, Program Director Healthy Living & Climate, Ahold Retailers' perspectives Anna Richert, Climate expert, Swedish Seal Responsible consumers and producers – launch of a new climate label for food in Sweden Inger Andersson, Director General, Swedish National Food Administration Is it possible to launch environmentally friendly food choices? Lessons learned?
	B. Waste of food Peter Lechner, Professor for Waste Management at the BOKU-University of Natural Resources and Applied Life Sciences, Austria Wastage of food – impact on the environment Mark Barthel, Special adviser, Waste & Resources Action Programme, (WRAP), United Kingdom The food and drink we waste: a new report into the scale and reasons for food and drink waste in UK Roland Thönissen, Coordinating Policy Adviser, Ministry of Agriculture, The Netherlands The policy in the Netherlands towards reducing the waste of food Fredrik Wikström, Senior Researcher, Karlstad University, Sweden Unexpected perspectives on packaging and food waste

C. International trade – public and private perspectives

Dale Andrew, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
International experience on carbon footprint and labelling of food and impacts on trade

Katharina Plassmann, Dr, Researcher in Applied Ecology, Agro Scope
Carbon footprinting and developing countries: implications for trade

Sarah McLaren, Dr, Landcare Research Manaaki Whenua
New Zealand greenhouse gas footprint strategy – decarbonising NZ food products

Hein Deprez, Chairman of the Board, UNIVeG group of Companies
Sustainable supply of fresh fruit & vegetables – a case study by UNIVeG

13.10-14.30 Lunch hosted by European Commission

14.30 Venue: Uarda
Stakeholder panel and plenary discussion, incl. summary of discussions in the parallel sessions.
How can mitigation of GHG from the food chain be achieved? Possible ways forward

15.30 Anders Lönnblad, Deputy Director-General, Ministry of Agriculture
Closing of the Conference

15.45 Final coffee before departure, hosted by European Commission

The Swedish Presidency greatly acknowledges DG Agriculture, Rural Development of the European Commission and the City of Lund for their support.